GSA Declassification & Release Instructions on File - No Referral to GSA

NOV 29 1973

Honorable Jack Brooks
Chairman, Subcommittee on Government Activities
Committee on Government Operations
House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Mr. Chairman:

Thank you for your letter of November 7 concerning your interest in the sale of two operating airlines, Air America and Southern Air Transport.

These properties have not been reported excess to the General Services Administration for disposal under the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949, as amended. They are not, therefore, being disposed of under the 1949 Act, and we are not aware of any disposal authority which the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) has for such disposals.

The 1949 Act, Section 602(d)(17), provides that the authority of the CIA shall not be impaired or affected by anything in the Act. However, this provision would not give the CIA separate disposal authority; it simply would preserve whatever authority was vested in the CIA by other legislation. To be as helpful as possible, we are referring your letter to Honorable William E. Colby, Director, Central Intelligence Agency, Washington, D.C. 20505, and Honorable Robert D. Timm, Chairman, Civil Aeronautics Board, Washington, D.C. 20428, for further reply regarding this matter.

We trust these referrals will be helpful.

Sincerely,

Arthur F. Sampson
Administrator
